Summer Listening Camp

What is Summer Listening Camp?

The annual Summer Listening Camp is a week-long, day camp for children with hearing differences that use hearing technology such as hearing aids or cochlear implants. Typical camp activities such as arts and crafts, music and relay races are used to facilitate the child's development of speech, language, listening and social skills. The camp is staffed with UT Dallas graduate students in speech pathology and audiology and supervised by licensed speech pathologists and audiologists.

Who: Children aged 4 - 11 years that wear hearing technology, such as hearing aids or cochlear implants

The cost of camp includes: Snacks each day; a camper t-shirt; daily speech, language and listening intervention; transportation from the Callier Dallas campus on Inwood is available for those interested and the Friday Family Celebration. Please note the bus transportation is available Monday – Thursday and on Friday morning. Campers must be picked up Friday afternoon at the camp site.
